INTRODUCTION

Astrology teaches that Neptune is subjective and full of life. Where you find Neptune in your chart, you find an area of tremendous sensitivity and also the area where you engage your heart, your mind, and yes, even your ego. Neptune points to the area of life where raw physical desire may be transmuted into a loftier aspiration to understand your own soul's path.

Why develop your psychic senses? Because you benefit on the practical level and you heighten sensitivity to higher spiritual values at the same time.

To develop your psychic ability means to become more aware of these subtle nuances of sensation that seem inexplicable by ordinary methods. This interpretation reveals how to increase your psychic awareness. You will learn how to connect to the earth and to other people in a different way. The best of desire rises to the level of selfless devotion, and the best of psychic sensitivity rises to the level of compassion.

One of the joys of spiritual development is that we all have spiritual beliefs, and they gradually manifest in our physical, emotional, and mental activities. On the spiritual level we can actively aspire to admirable possibilities, while accepting on every other level that we are aspiring—we are not there yet, and we don't have to be perfect all the time.

Your Psychic Development Cycle over Time

The milestones of psychic development mark times in your life when you can make great strides in understanding and utilizing your psychic capacity. You can learn how your unique psychic talents work, what the messages mean, and how you can both encourage the abilities and reinforce your conscious awareness of them. Like any other kind of learning, you probably won't get it all in one burst.

The planetary aspects between the milestones reveal the 'how.' They show how you will feel and what you will most likely be able to accomplish in the way of psychic development.

About every twelve to fifteen years, Neptune moves from one zodiac sign to the next. These changes, called ingresses, mark shifts at societal levels. As mentioned above, everyone born within several years of each other has Neptune in the same sign. When an ingress occurs, it marks a major shift in the psychic energies of the planet, and this shift is felt by everyone. There will very likely be changes in social, cultural, and even global perceptions and actions.

Just as Neptune's movement to a new sign signals major changes for the entire planet, Neptune moves into new houses in your own chart and signals profound changes that set you apart from your peers. Personal changes in psychic sensitivity or focus usher in new cycles of events and set the tone for your psychic life for extended periods.

Although of lesser impact than the milestones mentioned earlier, there are pitfalls to be avoided and challenges to be managed as you travel your spiritual path toward self-realization. Psychic development does not unfold uniformly for everyone, that's for sure.

The rest of this interpretation is organized by date. As you read about dates already past, you may note psychic developments that you are aware of, or possibly some you were not aware of at the time. As you read about future dates, you will see a roadmap of future psychic development that you can consciously follow, thereby enhancing your potential.

Note that your report may repeat certain interpretations. This occurs because Neptune appears to go backward in the sky for a period of time each year. The first time you see an interpretation, you get an idea of the theme, and the second time you perceive the problems involved. With the third 'hit' you have hopefully resolved some of the issues and obtained rewards that will carry you forward. For the Milestone aspects in particular, the effect of the third occurrence of an aspect is to 'restart' your psychic awareness, and it carries forward until the next milestone several years later, modified by other aspects in between.

Neptune square Mars, 12 Feb 2009 (16 Jan 2009 - 11 Mar 2009)

Shortsighted planning poses big challenges for you. In addition, low physical and emotional energy levels sometimes prevent you from accomplishing everything you imagine and desire. In short, you have great ideas and lack the physical resources to see them through, at least in the short term. Keep notes about your ideas, as they may come to fruition later when inspiration motivates you.

Neptune semi-sextile North Node, 12 Feb 2009 (16 Jan 2009 - 11 Mar 2009)

Your psychic abilities begin inside your physical body and extend out. Thus you can gain clarity by learning to sense what is happening right next to your skin. Then reach out with your mind into the immediate environment. You'll be amazed at the answers you find quite close at hand. Understand your psychic impulses first, then you will understand other people.

Neptune opposition Pluto, 17 Feb 2009 (22 Jan 2009 - 17 Mar 2009)

Awareness of anything supernatural is possible. You may have fantastic ideas that at first you choose to disregard. You may be attracted to some eccentric plans or schemes that a year later seem too weird to even consider. On the other hand, you also gain profound insight into clairvoyant or other psychic talents, and what you learn now puts you leaps and bounds ahead of the pack. Take the time to organize your impressions, study your dreams, and meditate to help clear your mind so you can realize and manifest the truth.

Neptune quintile Moon, 27 Feb 2009 (31 Jan 2009 - 28 Mar 2009)

All your creative talents are enhanced as you develop psychic awareness. Artistic works are enriched by subtle understanding of your awareness and the sensitivities of your audience. Your psychic skills increase as you express what you are perceiving.

Neptune trine Neptune, 19 Apr 2009 & 8 Jul 2009 (15 Mar 2009 - 18 Aug 2009)

MILESTONE: SEEKING SPIRITUAL ANSWERS

You enter a period when your spiritual life reaches a peak. Conditions around you may relax in unexplained ways. Often this occurs because you have grown into your psychic talents and you are comfortably able to rely on them for information.

In addition, you may realize that the non-material side of life is at least as important as the obvious benefits of physical security and comfort. The paradox at this milestone is that you feel certain your ideals are worth fighting for, and at the same time you are more realistic about what the material world has to offer.

This and later milestones could signal health problems that are difficult to diagnose. You may both consult traditional physicians and attune to your own body to gather the healing resources you need.

Neptune enters Pisces, 4 Apr 2011

Huge religious shifts that impacted the entire world, the development of mathematics that changed the world, and development of the concepts behind communism and freedom for all people all took place during eras when Neptune was in Pisces. While you may not instigate a civil war, during this period you can cultivate empathy and compassion that engender constructive changes in everyone you meet. During this period you develop clairvoyant skills. Your skills will not be just like your teacher or anyone else. Almost anything can be used as a focus or trigger for clairvoyance, and you now have the opportunity to identify proper tools for your unique powers.
